

since the do not call law has gone into effect i can actually eat dinner or not be disturbed with persistent telemarketers. it is the best law n j has ever enacted.